

17576/K

2ND COPY DELIVERED TO THE
JUN 6 - 1900
Music Department

Music

FOR THE Sanctuary.

SECOND SERIES.

A Collection of Sacred Quartetts, Hymns, Anthems &c.

Composed and Arranged by

Walter R. Johnston.

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 1. EASTER ANTHEM. "Christ the Lord is Risen to-day." Soprano Solo and Quartett. | 40¢ |
| 2. CHRISTMAS ANTHEM. "And there were Shepherds." Solo and Quartett. | 60. |
| 3. THANKSGIVING ODE. Solo and Quartett | 40. |
| 4. CHRISTMAS ANTHEM No. 2. "Hark! what mean those holy voices." Solo & Quar. | |

TO
Rev. John A.M. Chapman, D.D.

Thanksgiving Ode.

WORDS BY Hon. E. L. Fancher.

MUSIC BY Walter R. Johnston.

OP. 37.

BARITONE SOLO.
Moderato.

1. Be - neath the cool Au - tum-nal skies, The ripened corn and
2. The streams re - flect each flowery spray That bends a - bove them

Organ.

fruits appear ; Let anthems to the Giv - er rise For all the bless - ings of the
as they glide When spring in blossom'd boughs is gay, Or summer glows with warmer

SOPRANO SOLO.

year. 'Twas He who cov-er'd o'er the mead With pastures green and fra-grant pride. The flocks are glad on hill-sides green The birds are tune-ful in the flowers; The sun, the rain, the quick-en'd seed Have cloth'd the wood; Joy smiles in ev-ery syl-van scene, As Plen-ty

TRIO.

CHORUS.
Allegro Maestoso.

fields and bent the bow'rs. fills the land with food. How Rich

rall. ff ff

blest the land, where home and fane With Truth's sublim-est strains resound ! Rich are the gifts from Na-ture's hand, Yet rich-er good to all is given : Let are the sun - - ripe fruits and grain, But rich-er gifts from Heav'n a-bound.

loud thankgiv - ing thrill the land, So much be - lov'd and blessed of Heav'n !